

I strongly object to broadband over power line technology due to the adverse affect it will have on amateur radio. The HF amateur bands will be useless if this technology is approved.